Additional information
Other important information: In general, all personal account holders and businesses fall within the deposit guarantee scheme. Certain deposits are excluded. These are mentioned on the website of the responsible guarantee scheme. Your bank will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If an account is covered, the bank will also confirm this on the account statement. ⁱ Your deposits are covered by the Dutch statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If your bank goes bankrupt, your deposits are refunded up to EUR100.000.

ⁱⁱ General limit of protection: If a deposit is not available to the account holder because a bank is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Dutch Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum EUR100.000 per bank. This means that all deposits at the same bank are aggregated in order to determine amount covered. If, for instance, an account holder has EUR90.000 in savings account and EUR20.000 in a payment account, he or she will only be refunded EUR100.000.

ⁱⁱⁱ Protection limit for joint accounts: With joint accounts, the EUR100.000 limit applies to each account holder separately. If, at the time of bank's bankruptcy, you held a deposit that was directly related to the sale or purchase of a private owner-occupied home, this deposit is protected under the deposit guarantee scheme for a three-month period after the amount was deposited up to an additional EUR500.000. Further information can be found at: www.depositogarantie.nl.
